From 6,001 to 8,000 kg	US$ 100.00 Additional charge per 1,000 kg or part thereof
8,001 kg and above	To be quoted separately

5. Special import regulations and import licenses

- All Electrical appliances, whether on temporary or permanent import, require electrical test certificates from their country of origin before they can be imported into South Africa. Copies of these certificates must be faxed to our office two weeks prior to the departure of the shipment from country of origin.
- Rubber products, such as tyres, are subject to import license prior to entry into South Africa.
- Import permits are also required for certain foodstuffs, medicines, weapons, flowers and plant products.
- All goods specified in the Import Control Regulations require an import permit. Imports which contravene import control requirements are subject to seizure; therefore, before shipping goods to South Africa, exporters must make certain that the importer has obtained the correct import permit. Import permits are only issued to registered importers.
- A Phytosanitary certificate is required for shipments of living plants, seeds, fresh fruits and vegetables. Importers in South Africa, in addition, must obtain an entry permit in advance of shipment for any item covered by the pertinent regulations in South Africa. Special regulations are required for the importation of lard, bacon, ham, hides and skins, sausage casings, animal hair and bristles, and honey and products containing honey.

It is recommended to fax copies of the commercial invoices to our offices in advance in order to check if there's any restrictions on the products or if there is any special import permits required.

All applications for import licenses shall be subject to the following fee:

Application fee	US$ 95.00 / application / exhibitor
-----------------	---

5. Prohibited Goods

The importation of, inter alia, the following goods into the Republic are prohibited:

- Narcotic and habit-forming drugs in any form.
- Fully automatic, military and unnumbered weapons, explosives and fireworks.
- Poison and other toxic substances.
- Cigarettes with a mass of more than 2 kg per 1000
- Goods to which a trade description or trade mark is applied in contravention of any Act, (for example counterfeit goods)
- Unlawful reproductions of any works subject to copyright
- Prison-made and penitentiary-made goods.

6. Restricted Goods

Certain goods may only be imported provided you are in possession of the necessary authority / permit. If you are in any doubt whether the importation of other goods is restricted, please contact your nearest South African Embassy abroad of our office. A few examples of the goods in question are listed here for your information:-

- South African bank notes in excess of R5, 000.00, gold coins, coin and stamp collections and unprocessed gold are subject to currency control.
- Endangered species of plants or wild life, whether alive or dead, including any parts of and articles made from them.
- Plants and plant products, such as seeds, flowers, fruit, honey, margarine and vegetables oils.
- Animals, birds, poultry and products thereof, for example dairy products, butter and eggs.
- Medicine (excluding sufficient quantities for one month for own personal treatment) accompanied by a letter of certified prescription from a registered physician, except on production of a permit / license issued by the Director-General: National Health and Population Development.

NOTE: Additional information on Prohibited and Restricted goods is available from our offices on request.

7. Port Health Examination

Some imports may require permission from the Department of Agriculture, Health or Environmental Affairs. Should any foodstuff, beverages, herbal medicines or plant matter be contained in the shipment and it is stopped by either Port Health or Plant Inspector for examination, the following examination fee will be applicable:-

Examination fee :	US$ 95.00 / examination / exhibitor

8. Sold Goods During the Exhibition

All customs duties and taxes must be brought to account before the local buyer can obtain release. During this time the goods in question will be stored at our warehouse. No sold goods or items will be permitted to leave the exhibition hall during or after the exhibition until the necessary customs releases have been obtained.

Specific excise taxes are levied on alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, tobacco and tobacco products, mineral waters, some petroleum products and motor vehicles.

South Africa is an adherent to the Customs Valuation Agreement negotiated under GATT/WTO. The dutiable value of goods imported into South Africa is calculated on the FOB price in the country of export. In conformance with its WTO commitments, South Africa has lifted import surcharges.
