2. Value Added Tax (VAT)

15 % Value Added Tax (VAT) is included on all handling charges.

3. Repositioning of exhibits

NO CHARGE will be levied for exhibits that require repositioning within the stand.

4. Heavy-lift Surcharges – where required

- Any shipment arriving after the deadline stipulated above will incur a 50% Late Arrival Surcharge of basic handling rate.

6. Special import regulations and import licenses

- All Electrical appliances, whether on temporary or permanent import, require electrical test certificates from their country of origin before they can be imported into South Africa. Copies of these certificates must be faxed to our office two weeks prior to the departure of the shipment from country of origin.
- Rubber products, such as tyres, are subject to import license prior to entry into South Africa.
- Import permits are also required for certain foodstuffs, medicines, weapons, flowers and plant products.
- All goods specified in the Import Control Regulations require an import permit. Imports which contravene import control requirements are subject to seizure; therefore, before shipping goods to South Africa, exporters must make certain that the importer has obtained the correct import permit. Import permits are only issued to registered importers.
- A Phytosanitary certificate is required for shipments of living plants, seeds, fresh fruits and vegetables. Importers in South Africa, in addition, must obtain an entry permit in advance of shipment for any item covered by the pertinent regulations in South Africa. Special regulations are required for the importation of lard, bacon, ham, hides and skins, sausage casings, animal hair and bristles, and honey and products containing honey.

It is recommended to fax copies of the commercial invoices to our offices in advance in order to check if there's any restrictions on the products or if there is any special import permits required.

All applications for import licenses shall be subject to the following fee:

Application fee	US$ 250 / application / exhibitor Application Fee
-----------------	---
